

Capitals Hub Canada

Inaugural webinar: Perspectives on a Multi-Capital Approach to Regenerative Economies.

FIRST PANEL SPEAKER BIOS

Silvia
Gonzalez-Zamora

Silvia is a Partner at KPMG, People and Change Practice. She is a seasoned tri-lingual professional with 20+ years of experience in consulting focusing on talent management, HR process redesign, human capital, organizational behaviour, and people analytics. She has been leading Equity, Inclusion, and Diversity (EDI) projects for over 17 years in Latin America, US, and Canada. Silvia is a well-rounded leader, connecting EDI with a background in Technology Adoption, Internal Audit, Compliance, Program Management, Data Governance, Change Management, and Innovation.

Silvia has a master's in Industrial and Labour Relations, from Cornell University, she is a Fulbright Scholar, and has been selected as part of the Top 10 Most Successful Mexicans in Canada, a recognition from Latinos Magazine, sponsored by Scotiabank. She currently works as the National Inclusion and Diversity Practice Leader at KPMG Canada, leading projects and initiatives related to Inclusion and Diversity, Risk Conduct, Respect in the Workplace, Equity and Anti-racism, and Wellness, for public and private sector organizations in Canada.

Capitals Hub Canada

Inaugural webinar: Perspectives on a Multi-Capital Approach to Regenerative Economies.

FIRST PANEL SPEAKER BIOS

Mark Knight is an environmental and sustainability specialist with over 15 years of experience in both the Water and Energy sectors. Currently, Mark is the Global Sustainability & ESG Leader for Veolia Water Technologies and Solutions. Before joining Veolia, he was a Senior Engineer, Environmental Excellence & Sustainability at Suncor Energy. Mark has published, presented, and won awards on various topics including Industrial Water Treatment, Sustainability & ESG, Biotechnology, Digital Solutions, and Bioethics. He is also extremely active in organizations including the Water Environment Federation (WEF), the International Water Association (IWA), and the Capitals Coalition and is also a member of the board for Ecologos/WaterDocs. Mark has a M.A.Sc. in Environmental Applied Science & Management, a B.Sc. in Chemical & Bioengineering, and is a Professional Engineer (P.Eng.) in Ontario, Canada.

Mark Knight

Capitals Hub Canada

Inaugural webinar: Perspectives on a Multi-Capital Approach to Regenerative Economies.

FIRST PANEL SPEAKER BIOS

Stephanie
Robertson

Stephanie Robertson is the Founder & CEO of SiMPACT Strategy Group, Lead Auditor of LBG Canada, Board Chair and Acting Executive Director of Social Value Canada, all of which have a clear focus upon demonstrating the value of investment in community and society.

She has spent the past two+ decades working with corporations, governments and civic agencies to understand, maximize and report on the value of impact. Stephanie is known for her focus on local capacity-building, for the development of systems to maximize impact, and for embedding best practises into ESG, Sustainability and social value reporting.

As Board Chair of Social Value Canada (SVC), Stephanie is a keen advocate of the social value movement's mission to 'change the way the world accounts for value', running training programs and building a network in support of the use of the Social Value Standards to enhance sustainability decisions, actions and reporting.

A Social Value International (SVI) Level 3 Practitioner & Trainer, Stephanie has also been on the SVI Board since 2013. She is a Founding Director of the emerging Canadian Hub of the Capital Coalition and works in a wide range of collaborations focused upon expressing the value of impact upon community and society.